***Editorial***

We are using today, excerpts of an article which we consider should be of some interest to our readers, taken from a publication of the "Awake" magazine. "TAKE A LOOK AT YOUTH". "In almost every country juvenile crime and sexual immorality by youths are on the increase. Take a look at what is happening. In the United States, the latest crime rise was an average of 19 per cent during the first 3 months of 1964. More than 85 percent of all cities with a population of 25,000 or more reported crime increases." Frankly", admitted a New York City Police Official. "we are losing the battle against crime". Not only in New York, but in other cities throughout the world; the problem revolves around delinquent youth. In Britain, the annual report of the Home Secretary shocked many. It said: "The percentage of young people between 14 & 17 found guilty of indictable offense is now more than twice the prewar rate for boys and three times the prewar rate for girls". British towns have been plagued by rival adolescent gangs, likened by a magistrate to "rat packs". Such gangs of youths stirring up trouble and violence are a principal part of the crime problem in many lands. And who is the victim of this earth-wide juvenile crime? The public. It is the public who are affected, endangered or attacked when youths throw stones at windows of cars, buses and trains; when vandals slash auto tires and steal auto parts; when youths deface or destroy public park or school property. When they snatch women's purses; when they break into homes to commit burglary; when they rob people at the point of a knife or gun; when youngsters take narcotics and go wild; when they drive autos or other vehicles recklessly; and when youths violently attack people regardless of age, women often being assaulted sexually. Yes, it is the public that is daily being savagely bitten by this mad dog of juvenile crime! Many law-enforcement officials believe the remedy lies with the family. But is the modern family equipped to deal with this vicious dog that is inflicting cruel wounds on the public daily? Can the family straighten out the morals of a new generation with a "new morality"? Can we confidently look to the family to remedy youth's delinquency? Yes, good parental guidance and by being decent themselves and not worthless and lawless can, must and will help!

CHANGES AT LAGO'S HOSPITAL AND INTEGRATION OF EMPLOYEE MEDICAL CENTER WORKING SATISFACTORILY.

From quite a reliable source we have been informed that the entire changes at the Lago hospital including the integration of the EMC are working satisfactorily. The first floor formerly used as Pediatrics and for surgical cases have been eliminated, and in the future plans are made to house there the dietician's office, coffee & lunch rooms, storage space and any other useful purposes that can and may be determined. The second floor accommodates all male patients regardless of ailments. The third floor formerly strictly known as the OB, now accommodates all female patients regardless of ailments.

TEXACO APPLIED TO JAMAICA'S GOVERNMENT.

Kingston, Jamaica. Sat. Oct. 10th. Texaco (Caribbean) Incorporated & Shell Company West Indies Ltd. have applied to the Minister of Trade & Industry to produce lubricating oil under the industrial incentives law. This brings to three the number of companies interested in producing lubricating oils in Jamaica. The Government has already approved Esso West Indies Limited.

DR. PATRICK SOLOMON, MINISTER OF EX-TERNAL AFFAIRS, TRINIDAD & TOBAGO.

Trinidad.

Sun. October 11th.

The Prime Minister, Dr. Eric Williams, announced last night that Dr. Patrick Solomon will be appointed Minister of External Affairs tomorrow. Speaking to a large gathering at Bourne Road, St. James, Dr. Williams said: "I have asked the Attorney General to prepare the Constitutional Instrument so that, as Prime Minister, under the constitution, on Monday evening I can advise the Government to appoint Pat Solomon Minister of External Affairs". The Prime Minister's declaration was followed by continuous cheering. Then he continued: "And those who don't like it..could go and live abroad". Dr. Solomon had resigned 26 days ago as Minister of Home Affairs following an incident involving the removal of his stepson from police custody. Dr. Solomon's first assignment as new Minister of External Affairs will be "to the United Nations General Assembly when it opens on November 10", Dr. Williams revealed. His second assignment, he continued, "is to make the tour of Latin America that the Prime Minister made of Africa this year". In splitting his own former responsibilities, Dr. Williams declared: "I have done my best as Minister of External Affairs and Prime Minister, but it can't be done. External Affairs is too important. It requires a man of enormous experience, and Pat Solomon is that man". Referring to the proposed tour of Latin America, Dr. Williams said, "Its going to cost some money..those who don't like it could go elsewhere. Dr. Solomon was subsequently appointed as Minister of External Affairs and took the Oath of Office on Monday October 12th, before the Governor General of Trinidad and Tobago, Sir Solomon Hochoy.

HEAD IN THE FLOWERPOT -MURDER MYSTERY.

Trinidad.

Sun. Oct. 11th.

Police yesterday picked up what they considered to be "vital links" in the "Head in the Flowerpot" murder mystery. Working on the theory that the remains of the headless woman may have been burned, crack sleuths, under Superintendent Francis Smart, head of the Northern Division, executed a search warrant at a St. Augustine house. They seized a quantity of ashes from the yard, a piece of extension cord, a piece of wire and a large stone.

B.G. POLICE SEIZE "PISTOL CAPS".

Georgetown.

Sat. Oct. 10th.

Guiana's children face a "capless" Christmas because police are seizing all pistol caps in the Country and banning further imports. This is an offshot of Governor Sir Richard Luyt's ban on explosives in the war against racial violence. Police say caps have gun powder, which is banned. There is little hope that Governor Luyt will revoke the emergency order banning caps.

THINGS TO KNOW.

In 1826, for example, Government employees had to go without pay for six months simply because there was no cash on hand. The Commandeur acquainted the Governor with the fact in May, but by June, he still had no reply. He therefore borrowed Fls. 6,000.00 from individuals in Aruba and sent a promissary note to the Governor for the amount. Still there was no reply. He wrote again saying that only with the greatest difficulty could he obtain bread for the garrison, and so it went. The following year Government employees were without pay for eight months. All this goes to show the difficulties that Aruba experienced throughout the 19th. Century and part of the 20th. as well. The long awaited financial emancipation from Curacao was more than welcome. According to the Government Regulations of Curacao of 1848, the Governor had the right to suspend the Lt. Governor pending the arrival of the Royal Decision. The Lt. Governor had to abide by his instructions and by the commands of the Governor into whose hands his appointment passed in 1920. In Aruba, all were supposed to respect and obey him and all functionaries were his subordinates. Responsible for keeping Law and Order on the Island. He was also charged with the proper execution of those Legal Resolutions entrusted to him by the Government in Curacao. To assist the Lt. Governor with every day affairs, the City Council consisted of two counsellors was instituted. Elected for a 4 year term by the franchised inhabitants, a seat was vacant every two years. The retired counsellor was eligible for reelection.

ABRASION. By: M. D.

The scraping away of the skin through injury without deep penetration is called abrasion. Sometimes foreign matter as sand or dust is left on the injured skin; these should be carefully removed, and the area washed with a boric acid solution, or a salt solution of one teaspoon to a pint of water boiled in a clean container. Dry the area with sterile absorbent cotton or gauze, then paint the abrasion with mercurochrome and cover with sterile gauze.

MULTUM IN PARVO.

By: B. K. Chand.

A CREOLE PROVERB.

"When you try to put an obstacle in another person's way, watch out that you don't stumble on it yourself and get hurt".

IT IS STILL ESSO HEIGHTS.

The Quarters which Lago built years ago for their recruited laborers from overseas, were known at first as the Labour Camp, then renamed Esso Heights. After there was no more need for these recruited workmen, and they all had to leave, the Esso Heights Compound was unoccupied and became useless to Lago. Then, Hon. D.C. Mathew, an intelligent and thoughtful member of Aruba's Island Council, who, is always thinking of ways and means to assist the Community in general, thought of the Government acquiring this Compound from Lago at a small token payment and make the Compound available free of rent to aged needy persons. The idea was adopted, and after a while, many people occupied the premises, even those who do not fall under the category of the primary intent for which the Compound was acquired. Several families are housed in these quarters, and we understand that they live quietly, peacefully and happily with each other. There are people who refer to this place as "Sweet Repose", "Paradise" and "Mathewville". Its neither Sweet Repose, Paradise nor Mathewville, officially, but Esso Heights. However, give Jack his jacket. I think it would be quite in order to name it Mathewville, as it was through the efforts of Deputy Dederick C. Mathew, that this place became a reality and has rescued several families.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

(Not the responsibility of the editor). Dear Sir: What is going to happen in Aruba? So many young men all over the place mobbing certain bars playing pool and have become nuisances to patrons of the bars and by loitering around the bars, have caused several people to keep out as they do not want to be molested by these disgusting loafers. This makes the business worse for the bar owners as they depend on their customers and patrons. Couldn't something be done to stop this? True, there is lack of employment, but if these husky malisious young men really want to do other things profitable to themselves, they surely can; for instance wash cars, clean yards and there are several other chores from which they can earn something rather than being bar flies and nuisances. I read in The Universal not too long ago, where plenty jobs are available in West Germany. Could not something be done to get these young men settled there instead of leaving them here to be strays and hooligans? Everybody seems to be depending on Lago and other Industries in the making. Lago is not the Company it was years ago and the population has definitely increased and increasing daily. Then what! Something should be done soon to get these young people settled elsewhere and avoid the risk of turning this beautiful Island into a land of unemployed molesters and hooligans. (Contd. on page 8).

BRITISH GUIANA.

Georgetown. Sun. Oct. 11th.
Where there are no less than 8 political parties for the general election to be held under proportional representation, Premier Dr. Cheddi Jagan has stated that his Government has no information whatever on alleged gun-running between Surinam and that Country.

ST. VINCENT.

Trinidad. Sun. Oct. 11th.
In St. Vincent, in the Windward group of islands, the island many observers judge has made, comparatively, the most progress since Jamaica withdrew from the federation and collapsed it "politrucking" was very much in evidence last week. Hard put to maintain his Government, since his wife Mrs. Ivy Joshua was obliged to surrender her ministry "without portfolio", Chief Minister Ebenezer Joshua brought off a coup which must have staggered his political opponents as much as it inflated his ego. Suddenly, the Deputy Leader of the Opposition Labour Party, Mr. Herman Young, known to constituents and colleagues alike as "Kilroy" (who was there), resigned from the party in which he had fought the Joshuas relentlessly over the years, and was installed hours later, as Minister without portfolio.

ST. LUCIA.

In St. Lucia, Chief Minister John Compton's newly elected Government had started to try and grapple with the formidable task of development-as the first annual convention of the ruling United Worker's Party set a deadline for St. Lucia to join the proposed "Little Seven" federation. After hearing party leader Compton, over 200 delegates voted unanimously that St. Lucia whose leading sons have expressed a desire <sup>to convert</sup> into the "Miami of West Indies", should become a member of the "Little Seven" only if the projected federation is constitutionally formed during next year. In Dominica, another of the Windward group, banana production moved up.

JAMAICA.

All this time discussion, in Jamaica, was revolving around former Premier Manley's People National Party's new policy of land reform firmly based on Socialist principles. Big talking point was PNP's publicly declared policy that, if and when it takes office again, individual and group ownership would be limited to 500 acres.

JAMAICA.

Mr. Paul Stephenson, an Englishman of mixed West Indian and African origin, has arrived in Kingston Jamaica, to study the social and economic conditions of Jamaicans aimed at promoting equality for non-whites in England. He will later return to Britain where he will make recommendations towards a policy of effective integration at the social and industrial level.

BARBADOS.

Bridgetown. Sun. October 11th. Barbados bus fares are to be increased from Thursday, Barbados Minister of Communications and Works, Mr. E. Talma, announced in a radio broadcast last night. He said:" a good system transportation is essential in any progressive community.

RELAXATION.

He was gulping liquor and was telling everyone around him how important he was; he then asked one of his intoxicated chums to accompany him home for a few, but the real intent was to show off. Nearing home, he said to his chum, "what I am going to show you, are all mine, bought and paid for! See that big fenced yard there and the big house in it, they reached the house, climbed the stairs and opened the door; see all those modern furnishings, see the liquor bar, see that spacious bedroom, come quietly and lets peep inside: see that woman lying there, in bed, that's my wife; and see that man lying next to her caressing her? That's me! Turning to his chum he said, "don't stand there gazing as though you don't believe me!

KEEP READING THE UNIVERSAL EVERY WEEK AND LOOK OUT FOR THE BIG SURPRISE THAT WILL MAKE MANY STILL KEEP WONDERING.

OBEAH TALK IN "FLOWERPOT MURDER STORY."
Trinidad. Tues. Oct. 13th.

A horrible obeah tale now surrounds the "head in the flowerpot" mystery. The story gained momentum yesterday afternoon when police picked up a handyman at Chaguanas for questioning about the strange find. The obeah talk was touched off earlier when Detective Inspector Burroughs, one of the investigators, stumbled on a large macajuel snake locked in a room of a small house at Manzanilla. The surprised inspector believing that he was in danger, shot the reptile in his head. For what other reason but obeah would one wish to send a human head to another? Curious crowds which gathered outside the Arima police station argued. But superintendent Francis Smart and Asst. Supt. Alfred James, who head a large team of investigators, were not at all prepared to advance a reason. Neither would Supt. Robert Blake, head of the C.I.D.

Drinking among teenagers was dangerous, they said for the teenager who drank to combat shyness was the alcoholic of the future.

SHE GOT EVEN WITH HER HUSBAND.

Paris. Sat. Oct. 10th.
Louise Etcheto, aged 28, and 5'3", has promised the Paris magistrates that she won't beat up her 5'11" husband, André any more. André, with a dislocated shoulder, told the court that his blonde bombshell had assaulted him. Retorted Louise, he's been beating me for three years". "Because" interrupted André, "she spends too much money every Thursday at the hairdressers". "But, madame, why asked the magistrate, "did you wait three years to counterattack?". Louise had the last word. "I never went to the hairdressers, I was taking judo lessons and finished the course last week".

Our congratulations once more to Messrs. Wong & Tjon on the successful operation of this excellent Esso Servicenter.

KEEP YOUNG AND BEAUTIFUL.

The face and neck can be made firm, younger looking, smoother, lighter and fresher in color, by simply applying a creamy compound known to your druggist as fayd, night and morning. A 2 oz. jar is enough to make a whole world of beautiful difference in your appearance. Blemishes including dark brown age spots on face and hands. The use of the compound fayd was common in Egypt centuries ago but has come to the modern substitute surgical face lifting only recently.

NO MORE VEILS FOR PARIS BRIDES.

The Bridal Veil, for so long a formal-wedding must, has been less in favour this season. Yves St. Laurent replaced it with a "horse's tail" interwoven with flowers, hanging to the ankle. Liz Taylor borrowed the idea for her wedding coiffure without asking Paris Hairdresser Alexandre, who made the original one for the Saint Laurent model.

RELAXATION.
